Excerpt of pertinent information:

Carlos Davila, former Rumanian minister to the United States who presently resides in Washington, has written to Mihai Rautu, a member of the National Peasant Party residing in Paris, to the effect that the State Department will never accept any other president of the Rumanian National Committee than General Nicolae Radescu. Davila urged Rautu and his friends in Paris to oppose representatives of that Party in the Rumanian National Committee who do not favor General Radescu continuing in that office.
